#2

Attend a Roundtable Planning Council Meeting

The Planning Council Meets monthly and welcomes visitors to join the conversation. Visit our website for more details.

#3

Help elevate the voices of persons with lived experience in the criminal justice system

Consider inviting a Reentry Advocacy Project representative to attend a meeting of your church or civic association, or interview them for your next organizational newsletter.

#4

Plug in with a work group

We have active work groups addressing each of our four work areas and we are always looking to add additional voices and talents to the mix!

#5

Be a Second Chance Hero

Consider hiring, housing, or getting to know a person with a criminal background.
